THE DAY OUT OF TIME

MARCH 19, 2026

The day before the Spring Equinox — outside the count

---

The Day Out of Time is not part of any moon.
It is the day between the end of the 13th Moon
and the beginning of the new natural year.

It belongs to no month, no week, no pattern.

It is a pause. A breath. A reset.

Across many traditions, this day is observed as a day of forgiveness, reflection, and release — clearing the field before the new cycle begins.

The new year opens the following morning at the Spring Equinox: March 20.

"A day outside the count is a day inside yourself."
